the Ex-President - Roosevelt Not Worried-Given Rousing Reception

Milwaukee, Wis, Sept. 7.—The Germans had their day with ex-President Roosevelt today. Beginning the day with a tiff with Milwaukee's socialist mayor, Emil Seidel, who is a German. Colonel Roosevelt put in succeeding hours of his visit here by roaming about the city at will making his own programme as he went. He inspected the city's trade schools, attended two luncheons and a dinner, took an automobile ride to Whitefish bay and addressed two huge audiences tonight. Late in the evening he went to his car, to start early in the morning for Freeto start early in the morning for Free-port, Ill., where he is to speak tomor-row, and for Chicago, which he is to visit later in the day.

Guest of Milwaukee Press Club. The Milwaukee Press club had the colonel in hand. The club got out the first and last edition of the "Big Stick." a newspaper devoted exclusively to Colonel Roosevelt's affairs, in honor of the day. In it there was a letter by Mayor Seidel explaining why he would not serve as a member of the committee to welcome Colonel Roosevelt. He considered that some things which the considered that come things which the of 1818, which have caused continuous colonel had written about socialism diplomatic controversies and, incidentally, from the six days' speech of Senciould not expect him to welcome him. Roosevelt's Reply to Mayor Seidel.

Roosevelt issued a reply, telling people that he would prefer to have them read what he had written rather than what the mayor said about what he had written.

Colonel Roosevelt said he wanted to go to the Deutscher club. As he mounted the steps of the clubhouse the Germans sang "Hoch Soll er Leben. "I wish I could pose as your invited guest." said the colonel. "I found out last night that no arrangements had been made for a visit to the Deutscher club, and I said I was going there, anyway. When I was in Berlin I told the emperor that I should visit this club again in the near future and that I would bring his regards."

Welcomed by Old Friend. Emil Von Schleintz, an old friend of Colonel Roosevelt, said: "The Germans are glad to have you back here again. This is a German city, as you know. We permit the publication of English newspapers here, but otherwise we do not encourage the use of foreign lan-saving sovereignty through having con-firmed Great Britain's right to make reasonable fisheries regulations with-out the concurrence of the United States. The decisions reached by the arbitrators were unanimous with the exception of the coast question, on which point Luis Drago, the member from Argentina, filed a dissenting opinion largely supporting the contentions of the United States.

Important Point for English Point one, upon which Great Britain also was sustained, embodied the question of whether any local laws adopted by a British colony must be submitted for approval to any foreign power having a treaty on a similar subject with the imperial government. This point was considered of great importance also to the Patitlehand their triumph will be a matter of much satisfaction to them.

INTO SIX FEET OF WATER New Haven Young Man Drowned at Short Beach.

Short Beach.

Short Beach. Conn.. Sept. 7—By diving into six feet of water and striking on his stomach. August L. Weingartner of Nicoll street, New Haven, was drowned here today. Weingartner, accompanied by his sister, his fiancee and a third New Haven young woman, went out upon the Sound in a rowboat and when a short distance from shore Weingartner dove from the side of the boat for a swim. When he came to the surface the girls in the boat noticed his struggles and they did the second time, but thought he was fooling and paid little attention to him but the third time he arose they became alarmed and attempted to pull him into the boat, but failed. A boat manned by a man on the beach who had heard the girls cries reached the drowning man as he was sinking for the last time, and he was taken to the shore, but was so far gone that he died in a few minutes.

Opposition Seemed Withdrawn.

But that all opposition to the nomination of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin of this city for governor by the democratic state convention seemed to have been swept away appeared to be the case when Mayor E. T. Buckingham of Bridgeport consented to second the nomination in the convention tomorrow. Judge Baldwin's name will be presented by Henry Wade Rogers, dean of the Yale Law school. That it will be well received was indicated by the tumultuous cheer of the convention when Temporary Chairman Seymour mentioned his name as the standard hearer.

FELL INTO RIVER. Neighbors Save Body Badly Charred Chased by Wedding Party, They Came Near Drowning. Ansonia, Conn., Sept. 7.- In attemt Ansonia, Conn., Sept. 7.—In attempting to escape from their pursuers to-night, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilbert a newly married couple, fell into the Naugatuck river, narrowly, escaping from drowning, and instead of being, on their wedding journey as they ex-pected are spending the night at the former's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert ran down the tracks near the railroad station and in the darkness stepped off the side of the track into the Naugatuck river, where the water is about eight feet deep. The couple were rescued by friends who had been following them and taken to Gilbert's home, where they were given medical attention. Two grips which they had with them were lost in the river.

Seattle. Sept. 7.—A case of the dreaded "Korean earth disease." or "tochill" in this city was reported to the King County Medical society last night. Tochil has been brought only on rare occasions from the orient to the United States. Because it is incurable and infectious the medical society will investigate.

The names of only two witnesses have been given out. They are James W. Cunningham of the defunct brokering firm of Ellingwood & Cunningham and G. T. Rogers of Binghamton, one time special partner in the firm and prominently known as a traction lobbilst. They are expected to take the grand this week.
